

Introduction to Developmental Somatic Psychotherapy: Integrating Movement as Diagnosis and Treatment within Therapy

Ruella Frank, PhD. is coming to Columbus, Ohio!

May 19-21, 2017

This three-day workshop will feature Lecture, Individual & Group
Movement Explorations, and Therapy Demonstrations

Location: OSU Dept. of Dance Sullivant Hall

Days and Times:

Friday: 5:30--8:30pm Saturday: 9:30am--5:30pm Sunday: 9:00am--1:00pm

To learn more and register:

visit our website: <http://tinyurl.com/DSP-Columbus-Ohio>

email: Carol Zamonski at dspworkshop2017@gmail.com or call: Deb Schneider-Murphy (614) 432-5464

For more information about Developmental Somatic Psychotherapy and Ruella Frank, PhD.

www.somaticstudies.com

Your Sponsors:

Deb Schneider-Murphy, LMT, LISW-S, SEP has practiced Somatic Psychotherapy and trauma-informed bodywork for over 25 years. She enjoys teaching, assisting, and writing. She loves helping people access the wealth of information and potential for growth that we hold in our bodies, and considers this her calling.

Please visit www.debschneidermurphy.com to learn more.

David Dagg, LPCC-S, LICDC-C brings over 15 years of expert clinical experience to his holistic work with individuals, couples and families. He also trains and supervises other professional across licensure. David is honored to serve clients on the path of growth and change.

Please visit www.davidrdagglpcc.com

Kirste Carlson, CNS was motivated to become a nurse by her desire to be of service to others. She has devoted over 25 years as a nurse, therapist, teacher, author and presenter. Kirste works as a Psychiatric Nurse Specialist at the Cleveland Clinic and is both a Certified Gestalt Therapist and Certified Diversity Professional.